Wandsworth Safeguarding Children Board – Lay Member Representation

Introduction

All safeguarding boards in England are governed by legislation and Guidance namely; The Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009, Children Act 2004 and Working Together guidance, 2013. The legislation and guidance require that the local authority takes reasonable steps to ensure that the LSCB includes two lay members from the community on the board. The aim of having lay members on the LSCB is to support stronger public engagement, to challenge the LSCB and helping with making links between LSCB and community groups.

The Wandsworth Safeguarding Children Board (WSCB) is committed to recruiting two lay member representatives who will be able to bring a “diverse and grass-roots perspective” to the work of the Board in relation to safeguarding children; to be able to represent the views of the public; and to play a part in the oversight and scrutiny of decisions and policies made by the Board.

Job Description

The main duties will be:

~ To attend and contribute to quarterly meetings of the Network Board (4 half days) (this will include the preparatory work for these meetings in respect of reading the reports for the meeting).
~ To participate in any relevant working groups or Sub-Committees of the WSCB as appropriate (approximately 6 additional meetings a year).
~ To attend one London regional development day each year in relation to safeguarding/the role of lay members.
~ To support stronger public engagement in local child safety issues and contributing to an improved understanding of the WSCB’s child protection work in the wider community;
~ To challenge the WSCB on the accessibility by the public and children and young people of its plans and procedures; and ~ Help to make links between the WSCB and community groups.

Experience of working within a voluntary, community or faith group, or being a service user would be welcomed

Recruitment and selection

Lay Members will be appointed following an interview process and subject to statutory checks and references including an enhanced DBS (Disclosure and Barring Service) check. One personal and one professional reference will also be taken up.

Applicants will be required to disclose any previous personal involvement in the child protection process although it should be noted that this would not necessarily constitute a barrier to appointment.

Successful applicants will be asked to sign a confidentiality agreement before taking up the role (see below).

Induction, training and support

All new Wandsworth Safeguarding Children Board (WSCB) members are entitled to a process of induction which includes:

- A basic briefing on the function of the Safeguarding Children Board and the duties of Board members. This will include receiving a copy of the Annual Report and work plan;
- A meeting with the WSCB Board Manager;
- Identification of further training and learning needs.

Lay Members will be expected to attend Basic Awareness training in respect of safeguarding and child protection within the first three months of appointment.

A ‘buddying’ arrangement will be put in place for each Lay Member as appropriate, which will involve meeting with a member of the Board before and/or after each meeting to prepare and de-brief if necessary.

Lay Members will be subject to annual appraisals undertaken by the WSCB Business Manager and will be provided with safeguarding development activity on an ongoing basis.

Expenses

The role is a voluntary one, although expenses such as travel costs and subsistence will be reimbursed as appropriate.

Appointment and notice period

The appointment is for a two year period in the first instance with an annual review. The appointment can be terminated at any time with an expectation of one month’s notice period on either side.
WSCB Lay Members’ Confidentiality Agreement

Scope of the Agreement

In your role as Lay Member to the WSCB (and any Sub-Committee or working group) (hereinafter referred to as 'The Board'), you will have access to sensitive personal and business information which may be held in electronic format or on paper or similar hard copy, or may be spoken in face to face or telephone conversations and is of a confidential nature.

The personal and business information held by The Board and its constituent agencies is subject to the common law duty of confidentiality (i.e. where you are trusted with potentially sensitive information in confidence and are obliged not to disclose the information without permission from The Board). You are also bound by the Data Protection Act 1998 which provides for the protection of personal information.

For the purposes of this agreement, all personal and business information is considered to be ‘confidential information’, unless specifically stated otherwise.

Conditions of the Agreement

In consideration of The Board providing you with confidential information you are required to accept and comply with the following terms and conditions:

2.1 You will maintain the confidential information in the strictest confidence and will not divulge any of the confidential information to any third party without the prior written permission of The Board.

2.2 You will not make use of the confidential information in connection with any similar activity undertaken by you or on your behalf.

2.3 You acknowledge The Board’s proprietary rights in the confidential information and that disclosure of confidential information shall not be deemed to confer upon you any rights whatsoever in respect of any part thereof.

2.4 You will not take copies of any document or other material (in whatsoever medium) embodying any of the confidential information without the prior written agreement of The Board or the Chair of The Board.

2.5 You will store any reports or other papers, in electronic format or otherwise, securely at all times including keeping all documents in a locked filing cabinet in your home.

2.6 You will confirm to The Board in writing at any time on request that you have complied with the provisions hereof and if so requested shall provide a statutory declaration to the effect that no confidential information (in whatever medium) has been used or disclosed to any third party by you or on your behalf in breach of the terms of this agreement.

N.B Failure to comply with its provisions will result in the immediate termination of your engagement as Lay Member and could result in civil or criminal action being taken against you.
You acknowledge that you are aware and have been advised that:

2.7 The Board, as individuals or organisations, does not accept responsibility or liability for or make any representation, statement or expression of opinion or warranty, express or implied, with respect to the accuracy or completeness of the confidential information.

2.8 The provisions of this agreement shall continue beyond the term of your involvement as Lay Member to The Board.

2.9 The confidential information is highly confidential and sensitive, whereby disclosure may cause irreparable damage to The Board or individuals.

2.10 Nothing in this agreement shall be construed to grant you any license or rights in respect of the confidential information or in connection with The Board.

2.11 The restrictions on use or disclosure of the ‘confidential information’ will NOT apply to any information, which is already in the public domain (provided that this has not happened because of a breach of this agreement or any other duty of confidentiality).

Duty of Care

If during the course of your appointment as a Lay Member to the Board you become aware of information about a child, young person or family, or service which causes you concern, you must discuss your concerns with the person nominated to support you in this role or in their absence the Head of the Safeguarding Standards Service.

Review

The forgoing constitutes the entire agreement between you and The Board with respect to confidential information. The terms of this agreement can only be changed by a written document, agreed by The Board and signed by you. If at any time any provision of this agreement is found to be illegal, unenforceable or invalid in whole or in part, then the remaining portions of the agreement will continue to be binding and in full force and effect.

The provisions hereof shall be governed and construed by English law, and by your acceptance hereof you agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts.
